Zeus asked Prometheus and Epimethius to make living creatures.

Epimetheus made birds, animals, insects and fish, then Prometheus made man.

Zeus gave Man a present. He gave Man Pandora, a woman.

Zeus also gave them a box as a wedding present and told them not to open it.

Pandora was too curious. She wondered what was in the box

One day, Pandora opened the box.

Bad things came out of the box. They were Disease, Cruelty, Pain, Hate and Jealousy.

Pandora shut the box, but opened it again when Hope cried out to be let out.

That is why today flowers shrivel, fruit goes mouldy and the wind howls.
