

Bible

The Bible is an important book for Christians.

Christians believe that God spoke through men and the men wrote down his words.

Bible

The bible is separated into different sections, called books.

These books have information about Christian history, and also explain to Christians how they should live.