

Dove

A picture of a dove with an olive branch is a reminder to Christians, that God saved them from a great flood. They believe that some people and animals travelled on an arc (big boat). When a dove came back with an olive branch, they knew that the flood was nearly over.

Dove

Christians believe that there is a special presence of God - called the Holy Spirit that helps and guides those who ask.

The dove is used as a symbol of this guidance.