

Vertebrates and Their Skeletons

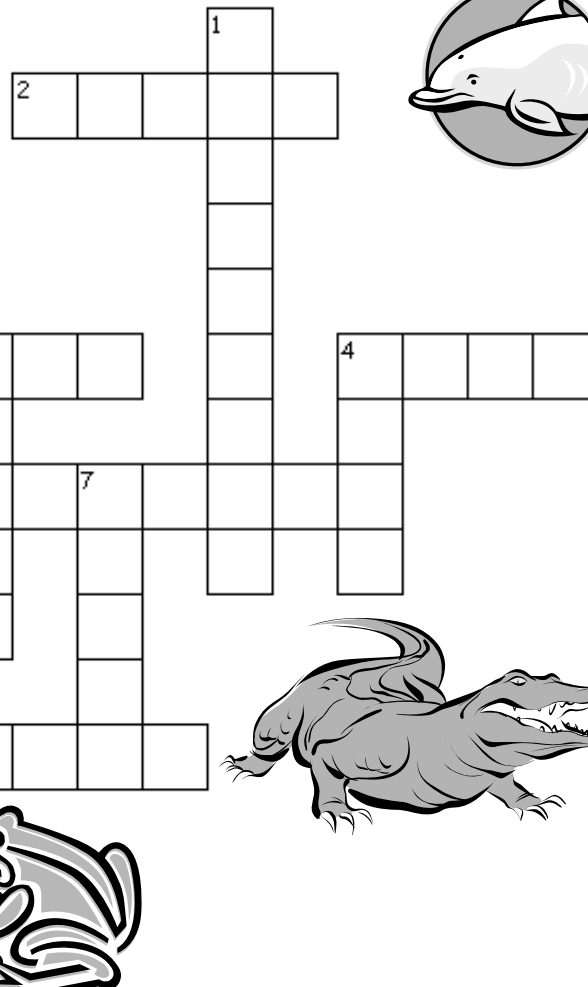

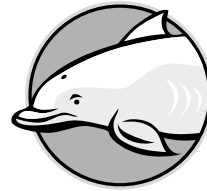

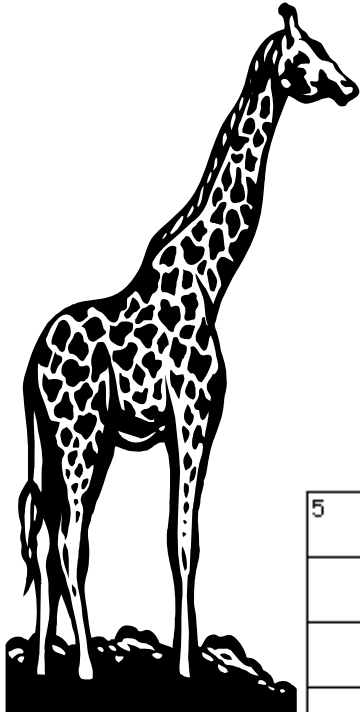

Across

3. We can ride this vertebrate.
7. This is a desert dwelling mammal that has humps on its back.
8. The skeleton of a vertebrate ... it and holds it upright. Without a skeleton we would be floppy.
9. This is a large mammal. Indian and African are both types of this big creature.
11. This bird is a vertebrate which people often cook and eat.
12. Amphibians live on land and in water. This amphibian can jump really high.

Down

1. ... is made possible when the bones and muscles work together.
2. A mammal that lives in the sea and breathes water is called a ...
3. A rodent with a short tail is called a ...
4. There are lots of ribs but no legs on this vertebrate.
5. A vertebrate that lives in the sea.
6. This is a reptile that lives in water and on land. It has a long, flat body and short legs.
10. All vertebrates have bones which ... the internal organs and stops them from being damaged.
11. This vertebrate is often milked.
13. There are 7 bones in this animal's neck, the same as a chicken, but it is the tallest of all the mammals.

Vertebrates and Their Skeletons

Across

2. This is a dangerous animal that lives in the sea. It attacks people sometimes.
3. These animals are found on farms. We get milk from them.
4. A grown up tadpole is called a ...
6. Bones and ... work together to help us move.
8. We eat eggs that we get from these animals.
9. Our ... is protected by the skull. Our heart and lungs is protected by the rib cage.

Down

1. This is a reptile that lives in water and on land. It has a long, flat body and short legs.
3. This is a desert dwelling mammal that has humps on its back.
4. A vertebrate that lives in the sea.
5. The ... is a big grey animal with big ears and tusks.
7. Sometimes this animal is poisonous. It has a forked tongue and no legs.

elephant cow chicken fish snake crocodile shark brain muscles camel frog

Vertebrates and Skeletons

Across

2. We get wool from this animal.

4. A pet that can catch mice.

5. This animal hisses. It can be poisonous.

6. This is a sea animal.

7. A farm animal that gives us milk.

8. An animal that lives in trees and eats bananas.

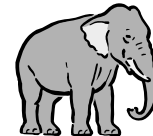

Down

1. A small animal with long ears. It eats carrots.

3. A big, grey animal.

4. A ... gives us eggs.

Sheep cat snake fish chicken horse rabbit monkey cow

Vertebrates and Skeletons

Across

2. sheep

4. cat

5. snake

6. fish.

7. cow

8. monkey

Down

1. rabbit

3. elephant

4. chicken

